The Director of the Numismatic Society
New York.

Dear & respected Mr. Beelen

I am ~~very~~ anxious to know about my old coins. I left to you on the 26th of February ultimo, when I visited your Museum of old coins in company of the Revd. Father Adrian, who lives in the next door to your Museum. I shall therefore be highly obliged to you if you kindly let me know particulars about my coins, and specially their value. In the new Mission I am placed, have no Church & no house to live in; and therefore I am in great need of money to build a chapel and a little house for myself. Consequently money is required urgently. Please let me know whether you will buy the coins & at what price. I hope you will kindly excuse the trouble. P. T. O.

Thanking you in anticipation
I beg to remain

Dear and Respect Mr. Beelen

Yours sincerely

Father Paschasius Herik

Dear and Respected Sir

When I visited your Museum in company of the Rev. Father Adrian ~~St~~ on the month of February last, I left you five old coins with promise that you would let me know what they were and what would be their value, but up to this date I have not heard from you nor have received back my coins. I shall feel obliged if you let me know about my coins. I wrote you a month ago on this matter, but have received no reply to my letter. Please let me know what you have done. I hope there will be no trouble on this account.

My address is Rev. Father Paschasius Herik, Hayden, Arizona.

Thanking you in anticipation
Yours sincerely

My dear Sir:-

I held your coins here for the reason that I wanted to wait until our new curator, Mr. Wood, who is an authority on Oriental coins, should be here, and be able to look them up and tell you all about them.

I enclose herewith a memorandum received from him, which explains quite fully what they are. The five pieces would probably sell for from three to five dollars.

I regret to say that this Society is not, at the present time, purchasing any coins of this character. I enclose, however, a list of the principal coin dealers, some of whom might be interested. I also return the coins herewith, and trust that they will reach you safely.

With best wishes for your success in your new field, I am,
Very truly yours,

Director.

Dear and Respected Sir

I have received your kind letter of the 13th May ultimo together with my coins and Mr. Wood's explanations on them. It has been very kind of you to take so much trouble for me. I thank you most sincerely for all the troubles you have taken for me.

I regret I have not done my duty before; it has being due ^{to} my absence from the place, I have been visiting my district, which is very extensive. Please convey my sincere Thanks to Mr. Wood also.

I am, Dear and Respected Sir

Yours sincerely
